Booking conditions

The booking is confirmed once the customer has paid the deposit (20% of the cottage rent) by the due date mentioned). The due date of the rest of the total price is 30 days before the arrival date. (excluding the New Year's booking, which must be paid no later than sixty (60) days prior to the start of the New Year holiday.

If the booking is made less than 30 days before the start of the rental period, only one bill (including both the deposit and the rest of the total price) will be sent to client and the sum must be paid in full by the due date. If the customer fails to pay or misses the payment deadline, the booking may be cancelled without further notification and the cottage can be further marketed. If the client do not cancel his/her booking by a written letter and the cottage cannot be marketed further because of this unpaid booking (which is not cancelled by a written letter), the full fee of the booking will be charged from the client who did not come on site.
